

Riker Danzig Welcomes Intellectual Property Associate Sara N. Goldman

Madison, NJ (June 2, 2026) – Riker Danzig LLP is pleased to welcome Sara N. Goldman as an associate in the Firm’s Intellectual Property Group.

Goldman focuses her practice on trademark prosecution and portfolio management. She represents clients across a range of industries, including entertainment, pharmaceutical, and medical technology, in all aspects of trademark protection, from clearance through registration.

Goldman has developed particular experience managing large-scale trademark portfolios and high-volume application projects for globally recognized brands. Her practice includes conducting comprehensive trademark clearance searches and prosecuting applications before the USPTO, including preparing responses to Office Actions. Goldman’s practice encompasses both U.S. and international trademark prosecution.

Goldman received her J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 2020 and her B.A. from Brandeis University in 2013. During law school, she received an Intellectual Property, Media, and Information Law Certificate, and she served as Vice President of Operations for the Intellectual Property Law Association. Goldman served as a legal intern for an intellectual property defense attorney’s office and for Calvin Klein while earning her J.D. Prior to joining Riker, she was an associate at Fross Zelnick Lehrman & Zissu, P.C.

About Riker Danzig:

For over 140 years, Riker Danzig LLP has focused on providing high-quality legal services to the business community. Headquartered in Madison, New Jersey, the Firm has additional offices in Trenton and midtown Manhattan. Riker Danzig has earned a national reputation for expertise in trial and appellate litigation, insurance, commercial law and bankruptcy and, in addition, has highly-respected practices in products liability, securities litigation, environmental law, governmental affairs, real estate, financial services, white collar criminal defense and investigations, employment law, corporate law and mergers & acquisitions, public utilities, intellectual property, tax, trusts and estates, and family practice.